B. OTHER ITEMS

1. Information Reporting, Reports, and Requirements (IRRR)

Three students completed instruction in IRRR on 28 September.

2. Counterintelligence Operations (CI/OPS)

The schedule for course No. 46 to begin 8 October has been completed and distributed. Enrollment of eight students has dropped to six as a result of TDY trips of two persons from Covert Training who had been enrolled in the course. I discussed with both Mr. [REDACTED] of the CI Staff the question of whether to proceed with the course with this relatively small group of students. Both felt the course should be given as planned, and Mr. [REDACTED] commented that he was pleased the enrollment was as high as it is. 25X1A9a names of candidates from State, USIA and AID have not been received.

25X1A9a Mr. [REDACTED] reports that in a recent conversation with Mr. [REDACTED] 25X1A9a 25X1A14a he was asked to prepare a memorandum recommending that CIA seek an exemption from the requirement that the Agency conduct interdepartmental training in the field of [REDACTED]. It was Mr.
25X1A9a [REDACTED] opinion that more valuable training could be provided for Agency employees if outsiders could be excluded. He asked that 25X1A9a this recommendation be sent to him after the forthcoming course has been completed. Mr. [REDACTED] asked what the background was for CIA's inviting students from other agencies to attend our course.
25X1A9a Mr. [REDACTED] stated that the provisions of NSAM 131 had been interpreted as a requirement that the Agency undertake interdepartmental training and that it had been considered inappropriate at the outset of our course planning to seek an exception.

C. ADMINISTRATION

Nothing to report.
